Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals To Court Clerk

I pray this letter finds you well. Thank you for all of efforts and actions relating to case # 07-4115.

I am writing to not only extend my gratitude for justice and your continued efforts to render me clarity and forwarding dockets, transcripts etc. I am inquisitive if I am in need of representation <sup>(SINCE)</sup> ~~since~~ the Honorable Judges Motz, Gregory and Duncan vacated my sentence in regards to Court of and remanded the case to the District Court for resentencing.

I am unable to afford private representation and I am humbly asking The Honorable Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals to appoint Mr. Alan Dubois / Mr. Thomas Montemara of the Federal Public Defender's Office in Salisbury, NC. to represent me in this matter. If I am unable to be represented by the North Carolina Federal Public Defender's Office in the State of Maryland, Please appoint me counsel for this matter.

Please acknowledge receipt of this message humbly requesting your success / expressing my gratitude.

Respectfully,
